DELICATE WOMEN BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR.

IT IS A SUPERB TONIC and exerts a wonderful influence in strengthening her system by driving through the proper channel all impurities. Health and strength are guaranteed to result from its use.

My wife was bedridden for eighteen months, after using BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR for two months, is getting well. J. M. JOHNSON, Malvern, Ark.

People who have dead animals to dispose of should be careful where they put them. Serious trouble might be avoided by burying the carcasses.

Who is entitled to the Blue Ribbon for having had the biggest shoe and Slipper trade of the town? I leave you to guess. John Kelleys shoes and slippers are the leaders.

We are astonished to see the Savannah cemetery so over run by stock. The fencing is down in a number of places and the gate left open. Whose duty is it to look after this matter?

A. Mat Shaw, who is on the penitentiary force of guards at Nashville, arrived home Sunday morning to attend the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Joe Welch, who has been in delicate health for some time.

We meet with no one who seems to have enjoyed the reunion more than W. H. Blount and Mrs. Sandy Walker. They are truly southerners and their southern blood and sentiments were run to a high temperature.

There is a public highway leaving main street in Savannah at the south east corner of Mrs. Fannie Smith's home lot, and leads out towards the C.P. church. Its existence is a matter of record and our commissioners should look it up and repair it. It would be a convenience to the public, persons going to the C. P. church or passing in the direction of Hamburg and Cero Gordo would be accommodated.

Savannah was visited by the most severe storm that we have had for quite a while; besides doing considerable damage to shade trees, the library was moved from its foundation and left very much careened. The Steamer Cherry was slightly damaged but was able to be off on time Monday morning.

Dr. J. D. Wagner of Selma, Cal., after taking in the reunion and Centennial, pays his old Hardin county friends and relatives a visit. He was raised here and has a host of friends here that remember him kindly as a physician. He is one of the first doctors in his state and enjoys a very lucrative practice.

D. J. Hughes has received another lot of John Kelley's slippers. They are not only prized for their beauty and comfort, but for their durability. When you see ladies flocking around the counter, like bees around the beehive, you may know their something good about.

Some of our young men wear a distressing look of late and well it may be, for the coveted prize is likely to go into other hands. Boys it appears that such is inevitable, hence you must resign yourselves to the decrees of fate and brace yourself against defeat.

Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Fain left Wednesday for Marshall county to spend a few weeks with relatives. Mr. Fain has a grand son there, who he was especially anxious to see.

We are indebted to Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Doran for a basket of luscious fruit, apples and plums. Mr. Doran, besides having plenty of good fruit is one of the best farmers in the county.

Can you imagine why it is that A. U. Walker sells more tailor made clothing than all the rest of this town put together; the secret is this—his five years experience has worked him up to the point where this season not a single suit has been returned nor a garment altered. In a few words his fits are always perfect.

The jail bird Will Lowry, who has been held now for some time for forgery, adds additional evidence to the voluminous that now stand against him. He induced Sheriff Story to give him a blank bond and in his absence filled it out and forged the names of some solvent colored men and presented it to the County Chairman whose suspicion was aroused and an investigation made, which showed forgery.

The Institute.

The County Institute met in Prof. Cox's school building Monday, with only a slight representation of the teachers, but since then the number has been increasing. The work of the Institute is under the management of Prof. Cox, Davis and Supl. Thompson, which insures a success. The Institute has become an institution, as much so as the courts and the Public school teachers are its members; each one should feel an incumbent duty to attend the Institute. The working of the Institute characterizes the public schools of the county and it is well that we have a full attendance and that the work is led by our best and most experienced teachers. Many of the teachers have a disposition to not attend these Institutes nor any kind of educational meeting which causes them to have only a routine of thoughts of their own and to drift in one channel all along their course, necessarily making poor teachers.

Colored Teachers Institute

The colored teacher's Institute met at the New Town High School building Monday, W. H. Daniels, presiding. Miss E. L. Hardin, of Clifton, was made secretary and 21 teachers enrolled.

Prof. S. W. Broome, fresh from Fish is here and is giving assistance in the work of the Institute. Miss M. M. Stewart, of Nashville, is here and also assisting in the work.

The Institute is the greatest ever held in Savannah for the colored people.

Rev. W. H. Daniels, who has charge of the Institute, has just returned from the Grand Masonic Lodge, which convened in Nashville, Tenn., June 21-24. He was highly entertained while in the city by this great fraternity.

Clothing.

The largest stock of clothing that's been bought in town for years was bought by D. J. Hughes being selected from three different stocks. He thinks he got the cream of these stocks as he was told so by two retired clothing men. Hughes has had the clothing trade of the town as every one knows for quite a while and with the bargain stock contracted for and about half of them now in and opened, he certainly will have the biggest trade of his life. A look will convince you.
